Aims and objectives	Shared Services are a common set of infrastructure services for the Information Environment, which portals and content aggregators and brokers can all 'talk' to via machine to machine interfaces. Over the past few years, projects are being funded under the Shared Services Programme to implement the Shared Services development plan and to explore and trail some of the identified services. This session will show some of these Shared Services in action, including registry, terminology / thesauri services. The pilot OpenURL routing service will also be present for a poster demonstration
